

Eastern Shore SWCD
Conservation Technician (Full-time)
Job Announcement

The Eastern Shore Soil and Water Conservation District (ESSWCD) is now accepting applications for a full time Conservation Technician position. The employee is responsible for performing a wide range of administrative and technical duties that pertain to the implementation of the ESSWCD's activities, services and programs. The position will focus on the implementation of the Virginia Agricultural Best Management Practices Cost Share program and the Virginia Conservation Assistance program.

Applicants must have a high school diploma or equivalent and a valid VA driver's license. Additional experience in farming, agriculture or natural resources is extremely beneficial. The ideal applicant would also have knowledge of nonpoint source pollution control activities, soil and water conservation issues, and agricultural best management practices. Requirements for the position include proficient computer skills including Microsoft Word, Excel and Powerpoint, use of Google programs, and email applications. Must possess the ability to work independently and in a team environment, multitask in a fast paced setting, prioritize, organize, be a self-starter, and communicate effectively both orally and in writing. The ability to work courteously with the public is necessary. Employment is conditional upon successful completion of federal and state background checks. Hiring range: $34,000 - $42,000 commensurate with experience and abilities. Benefits package includes VRS retirement, health insurance, vision insurance, dental insurance and paid leave.

Obtain an application and full job description from our website at <https://esswcd.org> or from the ESSWCD office. Applications with Resume will be accepted through July 15, 2022 (by 4:30 p.m. - close of business).
